MEDICINAL

* ffine o' York Enterprise, Yorkville C.C., Aur. 14, 91. Attantic Electropoise: Gentlemen— or the past five years not wise has been a sufferer from dyspepris. — completely did the disease make a wreck of ner former self that life was almost despatted of. Her nervous system was simust despatted of. Her nervous system was simust entirely destroyed, and the sightest noise would throw her into nervous space, which would has fer hours. Medical skill failed to bring any relief.

Through the recommendation of an eminent divine we were induced to try the Elect opoiso. After a persistent use of the instrument, the effect has been wonderful. Her nervous system has been restored to its almost normal condition; her digestion is wonderfully improved; she is rejidly cairing in flesh; and, upon the whole, is making a rapid recovery, which speaks volumes for the wonderful carative powers of the Electropoise, as her case was considered honeless. If any are wonderful curative powers of the Electropoise, as her case was considered hopeless. If any are skeptical on the subject, let them try the Electro-poise, and its wonderful powers will quickly dis-pel all doubt. Yours truly, W. M. PROPST.

For some months a number of Mormon e dars have bree in the countles of Boone and Raleigh, in West Virginia, making converte. Among those who had become be-lievers were family named Jarred, one of the wealthest in Boone county. The sast bound train on the Chesapeake and Obloroad Wednesday night carried four Mormons and the entire Jarred family to Guyardotte on their way to Utah. Mr. Jarred had become so estherisatio that he had sold all his possessions in West Virginia. The party remelaed in Huntington over night, weiling for other converts from Kanawha and B one counties. There was one memconverted to Mormonium. This was Miss Middled Jerred, a besudicigiri, aged nineteen, who had a sweatheart, A. L. Griffith, a young immbermac. Aithough see negged pitetusiy to be left bealad, her father and mother were obdurate. On the next train, which brought 20 or more persons who were converts, young Grifflith arrived. During the night Mildred had excaped from her father, but was caught and depet from her lather, dut was caught and brought brack. Grifflith prought with him four friends, and after value attempting to induce Mr. Jarred to allow Griffith to see Mildred a police officer was told of the affair. He gained admittance to the room Midred was in, and to'd her that Griffith was near and she could see him if she wished. A few minutes later she and Griffith were together and decided at once to marry. She was not 21 and no license could be secured in that State without her father's consent, which was not given. They at ones hired a buggy and drove to Ohio, where they were united in marriage. Af w hours af er the train bearing the Mormons and their converts

How Two Men Quit the Gaming Table.

'I was reading in the Tribune this morn ing," said a gentleman at the Hotel Cadilcarried on at Westerns hotels. I'll tell you a true story about one of these games if you He would play poker and try to beat the houses. I often warned him of the danger of this, but he persisted. It was near Christmas time, and one morning he came into the store and said, 'Last night I lost $900 at poker. I still owe $500 to the game and have to day to make it good. I am going to relee the money somewhere and want you to go and pay it for me, as I am never going to enter a gambling room again' felt sorry for the young man, and after dinpay it. When I entered the room a big laugh went up, and the men, all my personbegan to guy me about my partner Jack Haverly was there, and said that the young Jack Haverly was there, and said that the young man had sent his old pertner up to beat the game. New, in year sgone by I had played a pretty stiff rame of poker myself, and it nettled me, though I had not played a game in years. So, instead of paying the $500 over to the banker I bought $500 worth efehips and began to play. Luck was with me from the first, and in about an hour I had cancelled the $500 my partner owed and was ahead of the rame. I played another hour and cathed in $1,500, having won back all my partner's loses of the preceeding night and $1,100 to the good. I carried back a receipt for $500 to him and said nothing. On Christmas cay I turned over to him a check for $900, and had in my own name $1,100 in bank. I never toid him how I got the money, but neither of us ever touched a card since. Winning $2,000 in two hours is about as much disgrace to a man at los ing that amount. The gang of ten invited me to play after that, but I would never tempt fertune a second time."—Detroit Tribune.
